THE ALDO

BAROSSA VALLEY OLD VINE GRENACHE SHIRAZ 2012

Aldo (Stevens's father) tended to a small vineyard in the Barossa his entire life with great care and consideration to produce the highest fruit quality. The 2012 Grenache/Shiraz 'The Aldo' was produced from Grenache from that vineyard. The vines are about 75 years old and are dry grown. The fruit was hand harvested and crushed into open fermenters with a small parcel going through natural fermentation. After 14 days on skins the wine was basket pressed to older French oak barriques for maturation. At blending, 25% Shiraz was added to give texture, weight and complexity to the palate. We bottle The Aldo early to capture the fresh fruit characters.

The 2012 Aldo Grenache Shiraz is a deep cherry red colour with purple hues. The wine shows lifted raspberry, plum, confectionary and spice aromas. The palate is rich with a well rounded mouth feel with excellent intensity and length, dark fruits dominate. The 2012 Aldo is made to be enjoyed young when the fruit is at its peak. The Aldo Grenache Shiraz is our most consistent wine from vintage to vintage and 2012 is no exception.
